"I still say the history of Canada is in shoeboxes under people's beds."
Joyce Beaton, social historian and publisher. Quoted in The Muskoka Advance 28 Jan 1990

What does this quote mean to the Canadian?

- Deep history lost
- Taking Canada and its history for granted
- The older Canada is long forgotten and Canada resembles a small time America, except with French speaking people.
- -Isaac
- Not respecting what our country has done to make it what it is today
- After the retirement of Trudeau, the eccentric leaders of Canada dissipated and left modern men like Harper in charge
